

LITERARY ITEMS.

Messrs. Baker, Voorhis & Co. will publish in a few days "The Clerks and Conveyancers' Assistant," a book of forms for the use of professional and business men in drawing up instruments of all kinds. All recent changes in the law are noted, and full directions are given.

A reimpresion of the celebrated Alldine edition of British Poetry will shortly be issued by Messrs. Bell & Dally of London, and Messrs. B. J. Johnson & Co. of New York. The original Pictorial edition, I, is well known, was long since out of print, and a complete set in good condition is seldom to be met with. Pickering published 60 volumes in all. Messrs. Bell & Dally propose to reprint the same number of volumes, upon large paper, and will have the whole edition to 250 copies, of which 100 are reserved for American subscribers, and will be furnished at a reasonable price. They are to be printed at the Chiswick press, and in mechanical execution will be equal to the best of Whittington's work.

Among the numerous books that are pouring from the presses of our publishers, is a timely and sensible little practical handy book, by a former Surgeon of the East India Company, entitled "Epidemic Cholera," which Carlton of New York will issue in a few days. It is an eminently charitable work, just the thing for the timid and nervous, and the treatment is so simple and sensible that any polyclinic can apply it. It is expressly designed for the use of apothecaries, nurses, Sisters of Charity, and agents of the Boards of Health.

GREELEY'S AMERICAN CONFLICT.—A careful and impartial account of all the various works on the War will satisfy any candid person that GREELEY'S HISTORY is very superior, not only to any other, but to all others combined. Its appreciation by the public is now general, and its influence is daily increasing. It is the best history of the War, and the best history of any other War. Held only by traveling agents. Address O. D. CASE & CO., Publishers, Stamford, Conn. C. H. CHILDRENSHAW, 100 Wall St., New York, and the District of Columbia.

BANDELEERO; OR, A MARRIAGE AMONG THE Moors. By Capt. MAYNE REID.

IN SATURDAY NIGHT OF THIS WEEK.

New Publications.

NEW BOOKS.

PUBLISHED THIS DAY, BY CHARLES SCHIRMER & COMPANY, NO. 114 BROADWAY, BETWEEN BROAD AND BROADW., NEW YORK.

Two New Volumes (5 and 6) of FROUDE'S ENGLAND. FROM THE FALL OF NORMANDY TO THE DEATH OF ELIZABETH.

By JAMES A. FROUDE, M. A., Exeter College, Oxford. From the fourth London edition. Price, 6s. 2d. each.

(The other two volumes will follow shortly.)

Mr. Froude has shown in his admirable history what new results may be derived even by the best historical researches when these are not confined to the antiquarian. His narrative has thrown a flood of light over the personal character of Henry the Eighth and his relation to the great events of modern history—the Reformation of Religion in Europe and the British Isles—that it would be in vain to shut it out.

It is a new and sensible history, well written, and will be enjoyed by all.

THE HISTORY OF THE JEWISH CHURCH.

FROM SAMUEL TO THE CAPTIVITY.

By A. F. STANLEY, D. D., in two volumes. Price, 2s. Maps and illustrations. Price 2s.

From the London Antiquary.

Samuel Stanley's recent Lectures on the Jewish Church have the same distinguishing qualities as the old, now familiar to many readers. From the sacred books and their knowledge of the Hebrew language, the author has obtained a clear and forcible knowledge of the Hebrew with respect to the personal character of Henry the Eighth and his relation to the great events of modern history—the Reformation of Religion in Europe and the British Isles—that it would be in vain to shut it out.

It is a new and sensible history, well written, and will be enjoyed by all.
